Frequently Asked Questions

---

Q: Do you allow liquor?

A: Gloria Ferrer is not a permitted location to serve liquor. We can serve, beer, wine, seltzer, cider, and any non-alcoholic beverages not containing hard liquor.

Q: What are the charges I need to take into consideration?

A: The site fee, wine fee, 20% service charge, and sales tax are the fees due to Gloria Ferrer. Any other services/fees are the responsibility of the client and their preferred vendors.

Q: What is included in the site fee?

A: The entire winery premises, event coordinating services and staff, day of event management including site preparation set-up, tear-down, and clean-up, as well as some event services such as banquet tables, folding chairs, and table lamps.

Q: What does the winery provide?

A: Gloria Ferrer provides seating at round tables for up to 80 guests, in addition to wooden folding chairs for up to 130 guests. We provide some event inventory such as table lamps, glass bud vases, and sparkling wine flutes.

Q: Are we required to use your preferred vendors?

A: We ask that you first rely on our preferred vendors. Catering vendors must provide food service license and liability insurance documents in order to be considered. All outside vendors will need to go through an approval process before they can work on our property.

Q: Is there more than one event booked at a time?

A: Private events are site-exclusive during the booking time frame of 6-11 pm. During this time frame the locations of Gloria Ferrer in use for your event are the decision of yours as the client.

Q: Can I bring outside wine?

A: We allow outside still wines but do not allow other sparkling. A $20 corkage fee will be applied to every 750ml bottle.

Q: How do I reserve a date?

A: To reserve a date, a signed contract and half of the site fee payment are required. Wines and final payment are not charged until after the event.

Q: What is the payment schedule?

A: The deposit of half of the site fee is taken when the contract is signed. The second deposit, the remaining site fee, is taken 30 days prior to your event, unless the date is sooner. The final payment is processed the following business day after your event and includes all wine poured, any additional time spent at venue, service charge, and tax.
